6 Q. Let's turn back to Mr. Bouwens here. Do you
7 have the right to reject the work that he does for you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. And I'm responsible for what products that I
11 actually ship.

12 Q. Okay. Do you have the right to control the 13 content and functionality of his work?

14 A. When you -- yes and no.

15 Q. All right. Give me the yes answer part of this.

16 A. When you contract a product out, you contract
17 out a product to do certain functions and functionality.
18 When you contract a product and have a contractor, you
19 have no control over how the contractor implements things.
20 You can make suggestions or recommendations, but a
21 contractor is an independent entity and can do whatever
22 the contractor wants to do.

23 We typically -- I typically look at contracts as 24 end product deliverables. And so typically there's
25 mileage, there's interim-type deliverables. It's a nice

1 Q. And what are they? Let's start off with
2 KAMIND -- KAM Industries partnership.

3 A. I'm a member. The way partnerships are
4 structured, I'm just probably -- I'm a member the way the
5 organization is set up. So we just manage -- I manage
6 the -- whatever, the day-to-day business activities of KAM
7 Industries, which is -- at this point in time it's very 8 little.

9 Q. Okay. So you are a general partner of that?

10 A. I'm not quite sure if that's the appropriate
11 term for a partner -- a 1065 partnership. I would have to 12 defer to --

13 Q. Okay. All right. That's fine.

14 A. -- Mr. Jerger.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. I really don't know what the classification
17 would be.

18 Q. Okay. Did you file any paperwork in connection
19 with the partnership to make it say a limited partnership?

20 A. It's a 1065 -- it's a 1065 filing, whatever that 21 is.

22 Q. Okay. All right. And KAMIND Associates, Inc.,
23 do you have a role at KAMIND Associates, Inc.?

24 A. My official role is president.

25 Q. Okay. Is it also CEO?

1 A. I guess you would say that, but generally I just
2 refer to myself as a partner.

3 Q. Okay. And can you tell me about what your role
4 is within that company?

5 A. Well, I'm responsible for the entire company.

6 Q. Okay. And do you -- can you describe the
7 extent -- I guess you have -- the extent of your authority
8 and control at KAMIND Associates, Inc.?

9 A. I'm responsible for the entire company, so --

10 Q. Okay. Okay.

11 A. -- anything that's associated with it, I'm 12 responsible for.

13 Q. Stepping back to KAM Industries partnership.
14 Can you describe the extent of your authority and control
15 of KAM Industries partnership?

16 A. I'm responsible for everything in KAM -- KAM
17 Industry, the partnership.

18 Q. Okay. And KAM RR, do you have a role in that 19 company?

20 A. I'm also the president and CEO. I'm responsible
21 for everything in KAM RR.

22 Q. Okay. So, in other words, you have full
23 authority and control of that, of KAM RR?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay. And KAMIND IT -- let me ask. Is it KAM
